South Africa's newest game reserve,
The Dinokeng Game Reserve*

Dinokeng Lofts – GPS Coordinates: South 25o35'42.9"East 28o24'19.8"

The name Dinokeng means
Place of Many Rivers

Race Format is what makes Dinokeng International one Loft Race unique!

1. Very good odds, you compete against hundreds, not thousands!
2. Race on your experience and breeding and not only luck!
3. More overall prize money rewards for your performance.
4. Sound race philosophy and unique training program.
5. Proven and experienced trainers and support staff.

Entry Fee and Payment Rules

1. R500.00 perch fee per pigeon.
2. R2 500.00 entry fee.
3. A perch fee of R500.00 per pigeon must be paid when pigeons enter our loft.
4. The entry fee of R2 500.00 for entered pigeons must be paid not later than end of March each year.
5. Entry fees and prize money payment are calculated according to the ZAR rate of exchange.
6. Your reserves can be activated if and when you want to at a cost of R2 500.00 per reserve.
7. All unpaid entries and there reserves will be withdrawn from our race at the end of May. They will then be auctioned after our main race to recover our costs, with no cut to the entrant, owner/breeder.

General information

Training and racing of the pigeons:

1. Vaccinations, medications, feeding, training, etc. will be done to the best of our ability to ensure that birds will be in the best possible physical condition.
2. The loft will not allow any doping, foul play or any discrepancies - every bird in the loft will have exactly the same opportunity to prove its worth. We are committed to honest, ethical and excellent management. We believe in fair play at all times.
3. Liberation, liberation times and close of race will be at the sole discretion of management.
4. BASKETING and timing of pigeons on Main race will be done under supervision of independent fanciers and/or appointed officials.
5. Fanciers may be present at the basketing of birds before the Main race.
6. Visitors are welcome to visit the loft on appointment, but must obey the rules.
7. A race can be moved east or west, can be shorter or longer and the date can change depending on the weather conditions.

Communication and Website:

1. Training, race program and information will be displayed on our website.
2. BASKETING lists, selected training and all race results will be displayed on our website.
3. We communicate mainly via sms and e-mail. Please ensure we have your correct information.
4. Members of syndicates, partnerships, etc. must make their contact information available for communication.

Prize money to be paid out:

1. Our prize money will be calculated and paid out according to the number of paid entries/reserves received for that season. (refer to prize money guarantee p.3)
2. At the conclusion of a specific season (10 working days after the Prize Giving Ceremony) a prize money instruction, containing different options, will be sent to all prize winners. This document must be fully completed and submitted to us, before credits for the next season or payments are processed.

An Entrant:

1. Any person, persons, partnerships, etc. who enter at least one entry into this loft, will be called an entrant.
2. Partnerships may be formed with other fanciers, friends, the public and even businesses.
3. If an entry consists of more than one person, a spokesperson for that entry must be appointed and indicated on the entry form.
4. All prize money will be paid out to the spokesperson and all debits must be paid by him and/or be deducted from the total prize money of the entrant. The division of prize money and the collection of payments are the responsibility of the entrant.

Registration:

1. A completed entry form must reach us before or with your pigeons. Registration/entry form available from our website or at the lofts.
2. At registration the entry bird and first and second reserves must be identified by the entrant.
3. On receiving your entry and payment we will confirm your registration and your registration number.

Entering Pigeons:

1. INTAKE PERIOD: South African pigeons from 1st of October to end of March every year. International pigeons from 1st of September to middle of March every year.
2. An entrant can enter as many pigeons as he/she/they want to.
3. For every pigeon two reserve pigeons will be allowed. An entrant can decide for himself as to how many reserves he want to send, but reserves cannot be more than the above mentioned ratio.
4. International entrants can contact us and we will e-mail or fax you your local co-ordinators details (if available).
5. Pigeons must be rung with recognized identity rings.
6. Pigeons entered into this loft will become the property of Dinokeng Lofts as they are entered into the loft.
7. Pigeons lost during orientation can be replaced up to end of March each year.
8. No pigeon can be entered into our race more than once.
9. No person/s directly involved in Dinokeng Lofts may enter pigeons.

Reserve Birds:

1. A reserve bird cannot compete for any prize money unless activated.
2. A reserve bird can be activated at any stage (paid in full).
3. An activated reserve bird will compete in any competition and prize money after being activated. (excl. BarZAlona and the Four in One Competition)
4. If an entered bird is lost for 14 days the reserve bird will automatically replace it.
5. If an entered bird is lost prior to any prize money competition the reserve bird will be promoted and become the entered bird immediately.
6. If an entered bird returns after the roles were reversed the roles will stay reversed i.e. Entered bird will now be the reserve bird.
7. If a reserve bird is paid in full (activated), proof of payment must be faxed or e-mailed to our offices for confirmation prior to any prize money race.
8. Reserve pigeons not activated on or before the 1st Wednesday after final Super Turbo Race will be put up for sale to third parties and may be advertised to be entered into the Main Race.
9. No free entries will be given any more for lost groups, entries or paid reserves.

Shipment of Birds:

1. Every entrant must make their own arrangements and pay all costs to get their pigeons to the Loft. This is also applicable to overseas entrants.
2. International entrants need to pay all the shipping, courier and other costs. to get them to South Africa. We will pay for quarantine on the South African side.
3. International entrants can contact the country race co-ordinator (if available, we will furnish contact details) or Dinokeng Lofts for information on permits, health certificates, etc.
4. Shipment and flight details with entry forms, permits and certificates, must reach our offices before or on the same day the shipment will take place. (Local fanciers do not need permits and health certificates)

The Auction:

1. There will be an auction and prize giving ceremony on the Barzalona Race day. (20 September 2015)
2. All other birds returning in time will be auctioned on Auction Websites, or live club auctions, at intervals at pre-destined venues. Clubs may apply for pigeons to be auctioned by them. Commission will be paid.
3. Pigeons sold at a live auction, will be placed on Dinokeng Lofts' website before the auction. Telephone bidding will be available at each live auction.
4. A 50/50 split will occur between the Loft and the entrant, after auction and admin costs have been deducted.
5. A 50/50 split will occur between the Loft and the original entrant for reserves activated by third parties, after costs have been deducted.
6. No split will occur for birds selling for R400.00 or less.
7. No split will occur for birds put on auction without at least first generation history and strain. This is also applicable if an entrant refuses to or does not provide any information in time for publication either on our website or the Auction brochures. This information must be submitted before the Main Race.
